About

Priscila has more than ten years of experience in corporate, franchise, distribution and e-commerce matters, advising clients from the beginning of their operations in Mexico to the management and operation of the business. Priscila has also participated in mergers and acquisitions of companies and assets that have allowed her clients to consolidate their businesses in Mexico.

Her practice is focused on advising clients on how to operate and expand their business in Mexico, both with domestic and foreign clients, outlining and implementing corporate and contractual strategies to meet their needs and achieve business goals.

She assists clients in day-to-day legal and compliance activities with an emphasis on commercial aspects. Her work includes drafting various types of legal documents, including but not limited to contracts, corporate documents, commercial agreements, terms and conditions, agreements.

She is co-author of the articles Subfranchise, Master Franchise and Development Agents and Selecting the Right Vehicle for International Expansion published by Getting the Deal Through – Practice Guide Franchise (2020). She is a member of the National Association of Corporate Lawyers (ANADE).

Priscila obtained her law degree from the Universidad Nacional Autónoma de México and an LLM in Business Law from the Universidad Panamericana in Mexico City.
