About

Beatriz is an associate at Diaz Rivera Laliou y Rosas, S.C. and has provided tax advisory to local and foreign clients on transactional matters for more than 5 years. She regularly advises multinational companies present in Mexico, institutional investors, high-net worth individuals, as well as different types of investment funds (e.g., venture capital funds, corporate venture capital funds and private equity funds), and startups.

She has actively participated in local and international corporate transactions, including mergers and acquisitions, purchase and sale of shares or assets, restructures, and reorganizations. Beatriz also has provided support in the design of tax effective strategies and investment structures.

Likewise, Beatriz has taken part in conceptual reviews of financial models and statements, to ensure that they correctly consider Mexican tax legislation limitations.

Beatriz has worked for some of the most recognized and well-known tax advisory firms specialized in transactional and diverse tax consulting services. She holds a degree in Accounting and Financial Strategy from Instituto Tecnológico Autónomo de México in Mexico City.
